(By The Associated Press)
LYNCHBURG, Va., June 19.—Reverend T. A. Smoot, Danville, and the Rev. F. B. Oglesby, Suffolk, were the speakers at tonight's session of the Epworth League conference in session at Lynchburg College. The former spoke on "Life's Supreme Transformation," and the latter on "Taking God at His Word." Vesper and prayer service were other parts of tonight's session.

BAROODY PROGRESSING NICELY

Sallie Baroody, who was operated upon Monday morning at General hospital, is reported as getting along nicely.

HIS HEADACHES SOON HEADED OFF

Kentucky Man Who Suffered With Severe Headaches, Says He Found Relief By Taking Black-Draught.

Endicott, Ky.—Describing the trouble he used to have with headache and how he obtained relief by taking Theodor's Black-Draught, Mr. Jeff Jervis, of this place, says: "I began having severe headaches. I can't tell just how they would begin, but soon my head felt like it would split open and I would be so sick I felt like I was paralyzed. I would have shooting pains in my neck, and if I turned my head I felt like it would crack at my neck. My eyeballs were sore and I would vomit. I would be 'torn to pieces' for a day or two. I would take headache medicine and feel so queer afterwards I'd be scared. I didn't feel right—I felt numb. I was telling a neighbor and he said: 'Get some Black-Draught and take a big dose when you feel a headache coming on.' I did it and took a few doses each night. Soon I had these headaches great relief. Now I am very seldom I have one at all. I just keep Black-Draught and use it when I need it. I don't let myself get constipated. Theodor's Black-Draught has been found to relieve many of the symptoms described above, and others, when due to constipation or a torpid liver. It is a purely vegetable remedy, made from carefully selected herbs and roots, contains no dangerous drugs, and acts in a natural way on the system. Try it. Sold everywhere.—adv.

WEALTHY WIDOW WOULD WED AGAIN

"Now that my stomach trouble has all disappeared since taking a course of May's Wonderful Remedy I would even consider getting married again. I cannot tell you how terribly I suffered before taking this great remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. McFall's Drug Store and druggists everywhere.—adv.

MAGICAL BEAUTIFIERS FOR WOMEN

Women everywhere are trying all kinds of beautifiers, only to find that their effects are transitory. The first requisite of beauty is health. Without it the steps lag, the complexion is dark, the complexion becomes sallow, and almost invariably the underlying cause is some ailment peculiar to women. There is a very inexpensive remedy for this condition in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which for nearly fifty years has been relieving women from some of the worst forms of female ill. Why not let it restore you to health and beauty and the joys of living?—adv.

Co-Eds Want Course In Love Psychology; Faculty Says No!

CO-EDS OF UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO WHO WANT TO SEE NEW LOVE PSYCHOLOGY INTRODUCED. LEFT TO RIGHT: ANN ALM, PEGGY WILSON, FLORENCE BASSINI, MARGARET CLEARLY, TED BURNER.

BY GEORGE BRITT
(Special to The Bee)

CHICAGO, June 20.—Why do university courses in psychology slight the profoundest emotion of them all?

Who isn't that emotion—it's love, (pronounced luv), of course—analyzed scientifically and its causes, circumstances and results pointed out for the enlightenment of the student at the threshold of life?

Those are questions which a group of nonsentimental co-eds at the University of Chicago want to have answered by the faculty not later than the opening of the fall term. There was talk early this spring about a course for instruction in love (pronounced luv) psychology, but Professor Forrest Kingsbury of the department of psychology disapproved.

For Summer Term.

If the faculty is amenable to good argument, the co-eds are going to have that course by next fall, though, and for the summer term if possible.

"We mean this seriously," says Margaret Clearly, blue-eyed junior. "Here is a subject which affects every human being. It is the motive for the most important events in life, good or bad. And so far as the student is concerned, it is passed over with a casual reference and a smile. It deserves scientific study."

Peggy Wilson declares, impersonally that she wants the course to help her in future writing. She expects to write fiction, necessarily love (pronounced luv) stories, and she wants to be sure she knows what she's talking about before she starts.

Heart Throbs.

Professor Kingsbury originally stilled the flutterings of interest in the heart throbs course with two formal reasons why not. First, he declared, students attracted to the course would be actuated by morbid eagerness for the sensational. And in the second place, it would be impossible to cover the subject adequately in a single course.

The girls, renewing the appeal for the course, now insist that his first reason does not apply to them and say they are willing to take the chance of learning in a single course a lot about love (pronounced luv).

Wife Lives Three Years With Hubby Who Never Spoke

Monotony of Dreadful Ordeal Drove Her to the Verge of Suicide, She Says.

LONDON, June 19.—For three years and two months my husband—although living at the same house, and taking his meals at the same table, has not addressed one word to me. I was otherwise alone in the house and the monotony of that dreadful ordeal drove me to the verge of suicide. It is an experience few people have had, and some, perhaps, will fail to appreciate the full horror of it.

We were married in 1903 and for over ten years lived very happily together. During the whole of that time my husband was everything a man should be. He was kind and good-tempered, and in times of sickness the embodiment of consideration and care.

For my account, I worshipped the ground he walked on. If there was any ground for complaint at all it was on account of his tightness with money. My housekeeping allowance during all that period was less than six dollars a week. The worry and strain of attempting to make this sufficient during the time of war and high prices had a serious effect upon my health, and eventually I came near a nervous breakdown.

On the doctor's advice I was removed to my mother's house. During my stay my husband came regularly every night and he never came empty-handed. There was always some little present or delicacy for me.

After six weeks I arranged to return home on the following Monday. But on the preceding Saturday my husband came as usual, and I noticed a curious change in his manner. There was.

Very mystified, I went home, but found that my husband absolutely refused to say a word to me. I begged and pleaded for some explanation. His only words, on the second day, were "You have done nothing."

Then, without a word of explanation, he turned on his heel and left me.

Throughout that time he let me do nothing for him except cook his midday meal. I tried to cook his breakfast, but by his action he showed me that this was not allowed.

I said: "I can't help it, I tried to change him, to win back his love. But it was hopeless. Finally I gave up the attempt and just put up with the heartache and loneliness."

But at Easter, 1920, I made one more attempt. I said: "I can't help it, I tried to change him, to win back his love. But it was hopeless. Finally I gave up the attempt and just put up with the heartache and loneliness."

The day after I obtained my divorce my husband came in and in half a dozen words explained to me what my future financial position would be. Then just as quickly he turned on his heel and went, and I suppose I shall never hear him speak to me again.

Patient Visits Park All Day in Night Gown
NEW YORK, June 19.—John Feirs of Hughes avenue the Bronx, is in Fordham Hospital today little worse for having wandered about Bronx Park in a night gown all day yesterday while delirious from the effects of an operation.

Feirs, who was operated on for appendicitis, was being led back to his bed early yesterday by Miss Hazel Smith, a nurse, when he broke away and rushed out of the hospital. No trace of him was found until late afternoon when a policeman glimpsed his white night gown through the trees in Bronx Park.

He sent him back to the hospital, where physicians were surprised to find him suffering practically no ill effects from his escapade, despite an operation "wound" barely two days old.

Work of Maniac Seen In Baby Carriage Fires
BALTIMORE, June 20.—Two fires in baby carriages occupied by infants, in the eastern section of the city yesterday, started police today investigating on the theory that the fires may have been the work of a maniac.

One of the babies is suffering from burns that may cause its death. The father, Isaac Cohen, was severely burned beating out the flames.

The other baby was snatched from her blazing perambulator just in time. The fires occurred within an hour of each other in the same neighborhood.

Predicts Lower Death Rate From Tuberculosis

SANTA BARBARA, Calif., June 20.—The decline in the tuberculosis death rate of the last two decades from over 200 per 100,000 population to less than 100 in the registration area of the United States, is in large measure to be credited to the organized campaign against tuberculosis which has been carried on by the official and non-official agencies during this period, said Dr. Louis I. Dublin of New York before the National Tuberculosis Association here at today's meeting.

Dr. Dublin is statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. A careful study of the statistics gathered from all over the world by Dr. Dublin gave a direct answer to those who from time to time have questioned the value of the anti-tuberculosis campaign, and have looked upon the working of natural selection and other influences, not under human control, as probably the most significant factors in the fall of the death rate. Dr. Dublin maintained that the larger part in the decline of the tuberculosis death rate was due directly to factors under man's control, and that through the development of these factors through the anti-tuberculosis and other social agencies, the amount of control over tuberculosis will be greatly increased and the death rate will be subsequently very much lower.

"Not all, but a large part of the credit for the declining tuberculosis death rate can be assigned to the anti-tuberculosis movement," said Dr. Dublin. "No one knows all the facts on the causes of the reduced prevalence of the disease. It would be unreasonable to deny that there are persons so constituted that even under favorable living and hygienic conditions they may become seriously sick with tuberculosis and would not respond to any treatment now known to the medical profession, but such a group composes probably a very small part of the whole population. What the anti-tuberculosis movement is attempting to do is to modify the living and work habits of the great mass of persons of average endowment, so that persons who unknowingly or otherwise misuse their bodily economy, and thus needlessly terminate their life-span."

With the continued rise in the level of general intelligence and economic well-being, the amount of control over tuberculosis will be increased. What may happen in the future is indicated by the phenomenal drop in the tuberculosis death rate during very recent years, when the standard of living among wage earners rose sharply. Better homes, higher real wages, more time for rest and recreation, and intelligence to utilize to the full these helps to better health, have reduced the tuberculosis death rate of the wage-working population after the war. The anti-tuberculosis campaign itself is an index of the higher intelligence and the social conscience which characterizes an advanced civilization."

Class Celebrates Opening Of Their New S. S. Building

The R. W. Peatross Bible class of Main Street Methodist church last night celebrated the opening of the new Sunday school quarters with a social entertainment which was largely attended. The social was held at eight o'clock with Dave Graham, president of the class presiding. C. G. Evans and Malcolm K. Harris made felicitous addresses in which references were made to Main street's forward stride in building a new Sunday school and also to the late ven-erated Jurist, Judge Peatross, who founded the class and whose name it still bears. Mr. Harris paid a tribute to his work for Main street and reminded his hearers how interested he would have been today on the consummation of the Sunday school project.

Music was rendered during the evening by Mrs. A. T. Gunn, Richard Penn, Basil Browder, Mrs. Allen Rabe and Mrs. R. P. Moss. At the close of the evening refreshments were served.

Love for Father to Keep Girl Silent

CHICAGO, June 19.—Love for her father today vanquished the desire of Cecilia Fuchs, 15, to avenge the killing of her mother. Cecilia, eye-witness to the crime, was to have been star witness for prosecution against her father, charged with the murder.

"I can't do it," she told Assistant State Attorney O'Connell. "My father is the only person in the world who loves me."

Encouraged, Ignatz Fuchs, the father, changed his mind about pleading guilty which he had said he would do after his cellmate, Caster Pastoni, was hanged after a quick trial.

Skipper Of Pittsburg's Toonerville Trolley Minds Babies!

SHOWING THE TWO-MULE POWER LINE AND ITS "SKIPPER," F. B. CAMPBELL (AT LEFT).

PITTSBURG, June 19.—They call him "motorman" But "Skipper" F. B. Campbell, general factotum on Pittsburg's "Toonerville Trolley," never handles a controller. He does pull a mean pair of lines, though. And he never has to worry about the trolley coming off. There isn't any on his car. For his power is furnished by mules. It's the last of its line in Pennsylvania. The car traverses a South Side street 10 hours a day. Campbell has been its driver and conductor for years. He knows everybody along the line. And everybody knows him, especially the women folks and kiddies. Often he's called upon to do his passengers' marketing. And sometimes he minds the babies, too! He wouldn't trade his run for the best in town, he says.

Response To Free Chest Clinics Is Very Gratifying

More are applying for examinations in the free chest clinic, being held in Danville by Dr. H. R. Edwards, of the state board of health, than can be handled, according to information from the clinic today. Dr. Crute, of Richmond, who was to assist Dr. Edwards, was taken sick on the eve of his departure for Danville and was unable to come, thus giving the entire work of the clinic to Dr. Edwards.

At the clinic, held yesterday morning in the city health offices about 16 examinations were made. At the evening clinic, held at Schofield at 8 o'clock, Dr. Edwards had more applicants than he could take care of. At both clinics today, at 10 in the morning and 2 in the afternoon, many examinations were made, and those in charge are gratified that the residents of the city are responding in such manner to the combined efforts of the state and city health departments for a healthier Danville.

Another clinic for the white people will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Thursday afternoon at 3 and at 10 in the morning and 2 in the afternoon. Friday, the clinics will be for the colored people. These clinics share largely in the organized movement, which in the last two decades has brought about a very noticeable decline in the tuberculosis death rate. The death rate in the last two decades has declined from over 200 per 100,000 population to less than 100 in the registration area of the United States, according to a press story carried today.

Dr. Louis I. Dublin, of New York, statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, who gives out the information, credits much of the decline to the organized campaign being carried on by official and non-official agencies.

Thermometer Goes To 99 Degrees In Afternoon Tuesday

Those who longed yesterday for the cooling breezes of another June will not be surprised in the least to learn that the mercury crept up to 99, or three degrees higher than has been recorded heretofore this season, according to H. M. Watkins, official weatherman. In the city yesterday an unofficial thermometer placed in the sun for a few hours during mid-afternoon registered 100. In the larger cities of the country numerous deaths are resulting from the humidity of packed and jammed humanity, although reports do not have the thermometer registering as high as 99. In Chicago, six deaths were reported in one day due directly or indirectly to the heat, the temperature reaching 91.

The average for the week ending yesterday is a fraction less than 90 degrees according to the official records. The temperature has been climbing steadily each day since last Wednesday, when it stood at 86 for the highest. Yesterday, with 99 the highest, the mercury had come up 33 degrees in seven days.

The official records, both high and low temperatures, for the week ending yesterday, are:

Day	High	Low
June 13	66	60
June 14	66	60
June 15	90	61
June 16	93	64
June 17	95	80
June 18	96	66
June 19	99	67

Good Morning Judge!

Out in Dog Level, a negro suburb, there lives a colored minister, Fred Little, so it is claimed, and his wife, Fannie. Yesterday afternoon Little became infuriated and charged that his wife wasn't on the level and he treated her like a dog so she charged. Residents were furnished with some excitement and amusement to a certain degree. The minister, it is averred, was whipping his better half. She did not have on a strip of clothing, it is said, and the angry husband was chasing her all over a corn field with a long switch, administering a whelp whenever he was in reaching distance. It is claimed that the regress as a result has a number of long lanes the width of a finger all over her body. The only explanation attempted by the minister was that she did not adhere to her promise at the altar to "obey." He charged she was disobedient but in what way he did not reveal.

The case was called in the police court this morning but it was decided that it was one for the juvenile and domestic relations court to deal with and it was ordered sent to that court for disposition. The negro is also being held, it being charged that she is suspected of being insane.

Mose Ruffin, colored, got high yesterday and put a razor in his pocket, evidently under the impression that he was going to attend some sort of a social affair. But Mose soon fell in the hands of officers and he was this morning charged with carrying a concealed weapon and an additional $10 and costs for being drunk.

J. P. Penn, Jr., drew a fine of $10 and costs for violating the traffic ordinance. When the case was called Mayor Wooding vacated the bench and called in Magistrate W. E. Griggs to try it.

James Alexander paid the costs of a warrant charging him with violating the parking ordinance. William Jones, colored, fined $15 and costs for violating the traffic some lumber from T. Adams.

Forcy Harrison, colored, facing a charge against public morals, was continued until Tuesday. Mrs. Gilbert Holly, whose husband is now in jail as result of whisky violations, has also been arrested on such a charge and will be given a hearing on Tuesday. It is alleged Mrs. Holly sold Adolphus Murphy a drink of liquor last Sunday in the presence of Frank Williams, who complained to the police. Murphy was not present and the case was continued. Williams testified that he was "bitterly opposed to liquor and would do anything in his power to break it up. Consequently he reported the liquor sale to the police."

Chauffeur To Be Tried On Friday

Willie Williams, negro chauffeur was bonded in the sum of $500 with C. L. Booth security for his appearance in Clarksville on Friday morning before Magistrate J. W. Rhodes. He is charged with "reckless driving."

Williams was driving the limousine belonging to Mrs. S. J. Penn who with a lady companion was in the car last Sunday when an accident occurred on the Buffalo Springs hotel bridge spanning Buffalo Creek in Mecklenburg county. The local police authorities hold a letter from the chief of police of Clarksville, asking for the apprehension of Williams.

Mrs. Penn's account of the accident has already been given. She declares that as the car was passing over the bridge one of a group of men seated on the rail of the narrow structure extended his foot, the car approached. The tender touched it, he lost his balance and went backwards into the creek.

Many Associations Adopt Standard Code Of Ethics

ST LOUIS, June 20.—More than one hundred and seventy trade and professional associations throughout this country have adopted standards of ethical practices for their members. Chairman Bert Scribner of Pueblo, Colorado, head of Rotary's Business Methods Committee, announced at today's session of the fourteenth annual convention of Rotary International.

"The first step for each is to establish for himself a solid basis of ethics," he said. "This basis, when fixed upon and accepted, will automatically go into effect in his social life."

Directed effort, however, is necessary to build upon this ethical basis in the business life. "Rotary is conducting a campaign for standardized methods in each and every vocation. Think of 90,000 business men in 26 different countries of the world giving simultaneous study to the raising of the ethical standards governing the relations between employer and employee! They are giving the same study to the three main contacts or relations of business."

"Contact with those from whom we purchase. Contact with our competitors and allied professions. Contact with the public—both customers and the general public."

"This is a work of eliminating dual standards—the Rotarian is striving to govern his business relations by the same moral standards as govern his social relations with his fellows."

"Last year 107 and this year between 50 and 60 additional trade and professional associations adopted, and are today working to set down in clear, concise language, just what constitutes ethical, and what constitutes unethical, conduct."

"More important still—these codes are being adopted and observed. Literally thousands of business men are declaring publicly what the Golden Rule means when translated into terms of business conduct."

Press Ass'n. Of N. C. Meets Tonight

BLOWING ROCK, N. C., June 20.—All preparations have been made here for the meeting of the North Carolina Press Association which opens here tonight and will continue through Saturday. Many important matters are scheduled for consideration by the editors and publishers and speeches will be made on subjects of unusual interest.

The convention will be called to order by President J. B. Sherrill, of Concord and the opening session will be taken up by welcoming speeches and responses and an address by Miss H. M. Berry, Secretary of the North Carolina Good Roads Association.

Every phase of newspaper work will be discussed during the convention. It is stated and editors and publishers will relate their views on problems which face newspaper editors and publishers. Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt, President of the State Fair Association, M. L. Shapman, Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Printing and also historian of the Press Association, and Dr. Henry Louis Smith, of Washington and Lee University, Dr. Smith will address the Association on the Lee Memorial School of Journalism which is proposed to establish, with the aid of Southern Publishers, at the University as a memorial to General Robert E. Lee.

Harding Off For West; Acts on Pleas In War Violations

Girl Invalid Elopes In Arms of Fiance

SAN FRANCISCO, June 30.—Miss Jean Strang, whose spine was fractured in an automobile accident last year and since has lived strapped to a board, was able to leave the board for the first time last week-end and seized the first occasion to elope with George Franklin, who was her fiancé before the accident. They were married at Burlingame, near here, after the bridegroom had carried the bride in his arms from the automobile to the altar. Each is nineteen years old. Mrs. Pauline Franklin, mother of the bridegroom, announced she would seek to have the marriage annulled. Mrs. Rebecca Strang, mother of the girl, also is said to favor an annulment.

Passes Judgment on Requests for Clemency for Imprisoned War Offenders—Several Commuted.

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, June 20.—One of President Harding's last official acts before leaving for the West today was to pass judgment on a number of pleas for clemency for persons imprisoned for violation of war laws. It was indicated that in several cases commutations were granted but officials said announcements would be made later.

An Easy Way To Banish Wrinkles

New Discovery Gently Smooths Them Away—Like Magic

NO longer is there any excuse for wrinkles! A new discovery of Science proves it. With this new treatment it is just as if a magic wand were brushed across your face, banishing every tired line, every laugh or frown wrinkle, every tell-tale mark of time!

Why let wrinkles add age to your face? Why let your beauty be spoiled by tragic lines and furrows, when they can now be erased so easily as pencil marks?

How It Works
This new discovery, called Domino Wrinkle Cream, is entirely different from anything known or used before. Unlike other treatments it does not attempt merely to conceal the lines. Instead, it gets right at the underlying cause of wrinkles—removes it in a perfectly natural and harmless way—and the lines and wrinkles disappear almost before you realize it. (Told in messages, no painful electric treatment, no harmful lotions. Just press a small quantity of this fragrant new cream into the wrinkles, remove in 30 minutes—then note the results! Even after the first few days your face will appear years younger looking.

Guaranteed to Remove Every Wrinkle
Domino Wrinkle Cream is guaranteed to remove every line and wrinkle no matter how deep seated it may be. If within 10 days you are not more than delighted with results, your money will be instantly refunded. A $10,000 deposit in the Producers and Consumers Bank of Philadelphia protects this guarantee, so you don't risk a penny.

New Beauty Awaits You
Nothing will more quickly rob you of your natural beauty and charm than unsightly lines and wrinkles. Why tolerate them any longer, when you can now banish them so easily? Get Domino Wrinkle Cream today! Sold at all good drug and department stores.

On Sale at Patterson Drug Co., Jacobs Drug Co., Frank B. McFall, J. C. McFall.

Goodyear Tires and The Final Cost Price

YOU have always wanted a Goodyear but maybe you thought the Goodyear name meant a high priced tire.

The initial cost of Goodyear Tires is not high. However, the final cost—the cost per mile—is the only real basis on which to figure. Goodyear Tires will reduce your tire cost per mile.

Every phase of newspaper work will be discussed during the convention. It is stated and editors and publishers will relate their views on problems which face newspaper editors and publishers. Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt, President of the State Fair Association, M. L. Shapman, Commissioner of the Department of Labor and Printing and also historian of the Press Association, and Dr. Henry Louis Smith, of Washington and Lee University, Dr. Smith will address the Association on the Lee Memorial School of Journalism which is proposed to establish, with the aid of Southern Publishers, at the University as a memorial to General Robert E. # THE GRIST O'GOTHAM

BY CASUAL STROLLER

(Special to The Bee.)

NEW YORK, June 20.—Traffic is supposed to be better regulated in New York than anywhere else in the world. Any New Yorker will tell you so, pointing with pride particularly to the nice bronze towers, costing $20,000 apiece, that dot Fifth Avenue and cause traffic to halt at precisely the same moment all the way from Washington Square to Central Park.

Everywhere in New York the traffic policeman is the law for even things on wheels—with one exception. It isn't a taxi, or a wagon, or a carriage, or a pushcart, or a wheelbarrow. It hasn't been classified. It hasn't even a name. It is pushed at times, and as often it is pulled. There are three little iron wheels, two firm ones and one which acts as a rudder. The body, which is only a few inches off the ground, is a box and there is a superstructure of rods which support a rack on which dresses and coats and suits are suspended on hangers.

Young men and old men, chauffeurs of these conveyors, push and pull them with a thundering rumble through the streets. There are hundreds of them to be seen anywhere between 14th and 40th streets and Fourth and Seventh avenues, dooming in and out among taxis, colliding with pedestrians and ignoring the traffic rules generally. It is one leg of the journey milder's clothes must come between manufacturer and bargain counter.

Not yet seen in New York this summer. An old-fashioned male tourist wearing a hat with a trolley—that thin black cord connecting hat brim with coat lapel against the wild winds whistling around the corner of the Woolworth Building.

Price of amusement is going up. East Side youngsters who used to celebrate summer by giving diving exhibitions in the fountain of City Hall Park for a cent or two now refuse to duck under in any park fountain in town for a nickel apiece. But there's always somebody in the hurrying crowds—never hurrying so fast that they can't stop a while to watch kids splashing in the water—willing to toss in a nickel to see the aquatic scramble. When a cop suddenly, with dripping urchins streaking down the street.

Washington Square is being reclaimed. Remnants of the glory of a couple of decades ago, when it housed the city's elite, have been maintained by a few old families clinging to historic homes.

Now a block of old residences, on the northwest corner of Fifth Avenue and Washington Square North, has been turned into an apartment house, with rentals staggering enough to attract people with limousine incomes. In the rear is a flower garden, with a fountain, and a courtyard. The place has been magically turned into two duplex apartments, one renting for a trifling $7,000 a year and the other for $5,000!

If you have the price you can sleep right where the horses of some proud Knickerbocker used to have their stalls.

Odd things about New Yorkers: The name of Charles M. Schwab is not in the New York Social Register!

A famous old gallows has disappeared. It was a tree on Ellis Island, used a century or two ago for the hanging of pirates and other criminals. Immigration Commissioner Tod, who has just resigned, thought the historic associations of the ancient tree were not very nice for immigrants, and a co-temporary anyway, they were building an addition to the detention room of the immigration station. So he had the gallows tree cut down.

Old shirts and worn caps are at a premium in New York. For girls—stenographers, students, shop workers, society belles—have taken to hiking as the great outdoor sport. On Sunday the terraces and roads leading out of the city are crowded with young women, mostly in the late afternoon, are garbed in their brothers', fathers' or uncles' hand-me-downs. With their lunches under their arms, or strung across their backs in knapsacks, these young campers seek the great outdoors up in Westchester county, or over on the Palisades of Jersey. Women greatly outnumber men on these excursions.

Coney Island is incredibly modest. Cops are arresting people who appear in bathing suits on Coney Island's new boardwalk. Most of the offenders are from out of town, who don't know that Mayor Hylan doesn't like to have persons in bathing suits show themselves off on the boardwalk. The penalty is $25 and five days in prison. More than 100 were arrested one Sunday.

BOLT OCCURS IN KLAN MEETING

(By The Associated Press)

ATLANTA, Ga., June 19.—Withdrawal of Colonel William J. Simmons and Dr. C. A. Ridley from the session and postponement of action on charges of mismanagement against Imperial Wizard H. W. Evans featured the first day of the special meeting of the Kloneclium of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan here today.

The definite action in the Evans case was expected Wednesday. Eleven of the fifteen members of the Kloneclium are reported to be favoring the exoneration of the Imperial Wizard. Emperor Simmons and Dr. Ridley, Imperial Kludd and two other members of the Kloneclium who are said to be insisting that the Evans administration be condemned are reported to have bolted the session shortly after it convened.

ZIVIC AWARDED DECISION

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 19.—Pete Zivic, of Pittsburgh, was awarded the judges' decision over Jack Sharkey of New York in a 12 round bout tonight. Zivic weighed 121 and Sharkey 127. Bobby Garcia of the United States Army and Frank Edwards of New York went 12 rounds to a draw.

HOSPITALS GET $150,000 GIFT BY ROCKEFELLER

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 19.—A gift of $150,000 to be distributed among 15 hospitals in the United States and Canada to promote the use of insulin in the treatment of diabetes was announced tonight by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The hospitals are in all sections of the country.

The purpose of the gifts, Mr. Rockefeller said, would be to increase the number of free ward patients who could be treated with insulin and to teach physicians in general practice the proper methods of employing insulin in the treatment of diabetes.

WAGE INCREASE ANNOUNCED

(By The Associated Press)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 19.—Officials of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company today announced an increase of two cents an hour for twenty crafts of labor in the mechanical department of the system. The increase which went into effect June 1, affects all shop employees except common labor, according to General Manager B. M. Starks, and applies to 12,000 employees.

(Special to The Bee.)

CHILDREN'S dresses are trimmed with patchwork—yes, not only their dresses, but their quilts, their pillows, their wall-borders, lamp shades, bedspreads, curtains and the dresses of the owner of the nursery as well are all trimmed with patchwork. The same material, too, is used to make them all—gingham, chambray, cretonne, chintz and calico.

MID-JUNE VIEW ON CROPS GIVEN

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19.—This bird's-eye view of mid-June crop conditions was given today by the Department of Agriculture: Winter wheat condition uneven, but improved somewhat in last two weeks.

Spring wheat is fair to good condition.

Corn, good as a rule, but crop is backward.

Oats, still backward.

Cotton deteriorated in some areas, crop still backward.

Livestock generally in good condition.

Apples promise well on the whole.

Sugar cane making good progress on an increased acreage.

Rice stands generally satisfactory.

Flax looking well where above the ground.

Barley in good condition.

Early potatoes hurt by drought in some localities.

Hay yields will be light in many sections due to drought and cold weather.

Meadows and pastures improving.

Peach yields likely to be small, due to freezing injury.

Truck crops moving from southern points in large quantities.

SIX KILLED AT RAIL CROSSING BY TRAIN

(By The Associated Press)

WHITLEY CITY, Ky., June 19.—Mrs. Shelby Smith and her five young children were killed at a railroad crossing near here today when the automobile in which they were riding was struck by a southern Railway passenger train. Mr. Smith, who was driving the car, escaped with slight injuries.

NEW YORK STATE "WENT WET" BY A CLOSE SHAVE

(Special to The Bee.)

NEW YORK, June 20.—National events many times hinge on small things. Here's a story of an insignificant shave that figured in an event that has turned the country inside out—politically.

The bill repealing New York's state enforcement act was introduced by Assemblyman Louis Cuvillier of this city. He put it in early during the last session at Albany. And it was pigeonholed.

In the State Senate the Donegan bill was introduced. It also called for a repeal of the Mullin-Gage law, the legislative name of the state enforcement act. On the final day of the session the Donegan bill was re-surrected.

Ex-Barkeeper Missing.

The Senate O. K'd it. But because a former bartender was absent from his seat in the lower house the bill failed.

Wet leaders were panic-stricken, and it was then that someone thought of the Cuvillier bill. A searching party determinedly set out to look for the missing ex-barkeeper. Luckily as the party hove in sight of the barbershop, the assemblyman was being powdered. He was rushed to the voting chamber, and his vote made the Cuvillier repealer possible—a vote that has started the nation talking, and has changed the aspect of the pending presidential campaign.

Cuvillier is confident the Volstead law is doomed.

"We will always have and we should have temperance. But we eventually will not have prohibition as it is today," he says.

"Our repeal has made it certain that prohibition will be the dominant issue of the next national campaign."

"I introduced my bill because I felt the time had come to modify the Volstead law, which is fanaticism, pure and simple.

"I am a Virginian and I have always been opposed to man-made laws eradicating nature's laws. That is what was done in putting over prohibition during the hysteria of war."

"Each state has a right to say what is intoxicating and what is not. The constitution is not a law but a chart to guide government."

SAYS CURE FOR T. B. NOW DEPENDS UPON RESEARCH

(By The Associated Press)

SANTA BARBARA, CAL., June 19.—At the opening here today of the nineteenth annual meeting of the National Tuberculosis Association, Dr. Lawson Brown, Saranac Lake, N. Y., president of the association, declared that one of the greatest needs of the tuberculosis campaign is more extensive research for the purpose of discovering a positive cure for tuberculosis.

The long search and the scantiness of financial reward have discouraged many brilliant scientists from entering the tuberculosis field.

Dr. Brown said that "a complete eradication of tuberculosis must follow along one of two lines. First, by vaccination or by some other method which will prevent tuberculosis completely, as smallpox is prevented today. If such a method fails, some method of treatment which is as successful as the administering of quinine in malaria must be discovered. Another possibility is that pulmonary tuberculosis, like leprosy and typhus, will gradually recede until in countries with a high hygienic civilization it will be of slight importance."

At the present time public education in disease prevention, increased sanatorium facilities, and adequate after care in order to prevent a relapse, are the best available means of still further reducing the mortality and case rates.

"I am convinced," continued Dr. Brown, "that in a few years, if tuberculosis ceases to decrease as rapidly as it is doing today, we shall see established in America a foundation that will do for tuberculosis what the Rockefeller Institute and other foundations are doing for general medicine. Such a foundation must maintain a hospital where the best and most modern treatment can be applied. It must have well equipped and extensive laboratories, it must command the services of the foremost experts in many lines, and they must be paid salaries commensurate with their position."

WARNING

You who use Palmolive Soap use it for beauty's sake. Be careful that you get it. There are many soaps made to deceive you. They imitate the shape and color. Names are coined to sound like Palmolive. Numerous soaps—some of them wretched soaps—are put in this guise to mislead you.

Our interests do not matter, but yours do. Your demand is for Palmolive, because of what it does. You are seeking certain proved results. And you are cheated when you get a soap which can't bring those results.

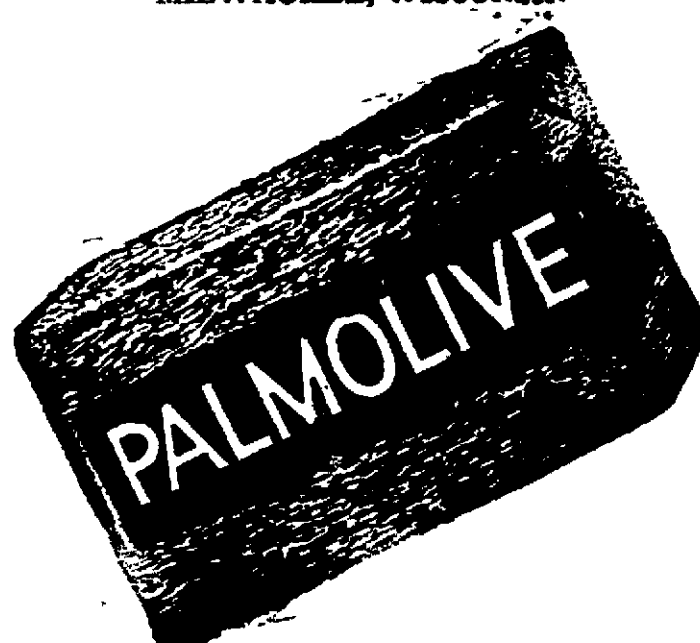

Palmolive Soap has world-wide fame because it aids complexions.

The envied results, seen everywhere, have won millions of people to it. Thus Palmolive became the world's leading toilet soap. Not merely because of olive oil—that's ages old. Not merely because of palm oil—Cleopatra used that. But because our experts found a way to give those oils unique efficiency in soap.

It is Palmolive Soap that has won beauty lovers as no other soap ever did. It is the Palmolive blend—based on 60 years of study—that brings those desired results. It is Palmolive which, by enormous production, gives you a 25-cent quality for 10 cents.

That is what won you—that is what you want. A commonplace soap without those virtues will not suit or serve you. Then be careful. Note the name carefully. Be sure you get the wrapper shown below. Don't let anybody cheat you on a thing that means so much.

CHILD IS SHOT AT BUCHANAN

(By The Associated Press.)
BUCHANAN, Va., June 19.—Ardella Wright, the 11-year-old daughter of Mrs. George W. Wright, was accidentally shot and killed yesterday afternoon by Flossie Reid, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. J. H. Reid, an employee of E. C. Pechin, near Buchanan.

For some weeks the rabbits on the Pechin farm have been doing considerable damage to the garden and Flossie Reid who is a good shot has been shooting them whenever she saw them in the garden.

Yesterday evening she saw a rabbit in the garden and got her shotgun and went to the garden to shoot it; the little Wright girl who was her niece was visiting her with her mother, Flossie Reid, and the child slipped out of the back of the house and got in the garden behind some trees and vines out of sight of Flossie Reid.

Just as Flossie Reid pulled on the gun to shoot the rabbit the little Wright girl rose up right in front of the gun, the load striking her in the mouth and killing her instantly.
The Wright child's father died about a year ago from tuberculosis.

soaks right in and gets to the seat of the trouble—the cartilage and ligaments of the joints.

And to think that for generations
we have been powdering and soaking our feet, thinking the trouble was only skin deep—just old-fashioned ideas.
Well, better late than never—just stop the powdering and medical bathing and other foolishness for three days and just rub on Joint-Ease—and remember when stainless Joint-Ease goes in foot agony and burning goes

Liberty Comes To Life Stirs Melting Pot of Children

BY JOSEPHINE VAN DE GIFT
(Special to The Bee.)

NEW YORK, June 20.—The Goddess of Liberty! To some she is a lady of stone and bronze holding aloft an incandescent torch over the waters of New York harbor. But to little immigrant children detained at Ellis Island she is a flesh and blood creature, with laughing brown eyes, who knows how to play wonderful games and who stops occasionally to cuddle a chap when he gets to longing for his mother.

It isn't the big statue in the harbor that is the Goddess of Liberty to these children, but a woman who works among them on Ellis Island.
She is Mrs. Jean Pratt who, ever since the close of the war reopened the tides of immigration, has been fitting young foreigners to be good Americans. As many as 140 children representing eight nationalities have been under her care at once.

In the Ellis Island kindergarten, which is much as other kindergartens with its benches and swings and colored pictures, she teaches them

MRS. JEAN PRATT, AND A BENCHFUL OF PUPILS IN HER
ELLIS ISLAND KINDERGARTEN.

the why and wherefore of eyes, nose and ears; later in the day, how to make wonderful creations from yarn and building blocks.

Between times she dispenses comfort.

Naza's mother is in the hospital.
A dozen times a day Naza must be told that soon her mother will be well again and then they will go to the United States.

Raechel wants to make a garment for her mother. But there is not enough material for the garment and Raechel's impatience must be restrained until the next day.

Karl is on his way from Germany to be adopted by an aunt. But the aunt has not yet shown up and Karl's German playmates have gone their way. Karl must be found drawing materials and told that some day he will be a great artist, to keep his spirits up.

Even this simple comforting has its hazards. For children, though loving, are also jealous, and if Marie is given a brighter piece of cloth to sew on then Antoinette's heart is broken.
Through all these perils Mrs. Pratt has braved her way into the hearts of the immigrant children.

"First of all," she says, "I love them. I speak all of the Latin languages but even if I spoke nothing but English the children would still understand."

"They learn to salute the flag and to play 'All around the mulberry bush'; to say good morning pleasantly to their teeth and shine their shoes."

"And whether they come from Lapland or Sicily, they're just the same as American children."

STORM FORCES GYM WORKOUT

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 19.—
A heavy rainstorm forced Jack Dempsey who is suffering from a slight cold, to work out today in an indoor gymnasium at his camp and to forego his usual run over the hills.

The champion indicated in a workout equivalent to ten rounds, boxing with a trio of sparring partners, devoting 15 minutes to callisthenics and a brisk run down.

Critics agreed that Jack Burke the Pittsburgh light heavyweight discovered one weakness in Dempsey's defense which may make him an easy target for one of Tom Gibbons' favorite punches, a ripping left hook to the stomach. Burke hit Dempsey solidly in the stomach as he came toward him in close. The St. Paul challenger, who is much faster than Burke and a more accurate hitter, uses this blow, with a right cross, very effectively hooking it to the body after a feint to the head.

Kinks-o the Links

Is Walter Hagen connected with any club or golf pro?

Tender's mistaken. Hagen's last engagement as golf professional was with the Oakland Hills Club of Detroit, a position now held by Mike Brady. Of late years Hagen has been a free-lance, earning his living more by competitive play than a connection with any club as professional in charge.

Please explain the exact meaning of "Bogey" for a golfing standpoint?

Bogey is a phantom player, usually given the title of Colonel. On every course Colonel Bogey is credited with a certain score for each hole, such a score being regarded as excellent for the hole. In playing a course a player constantly is trying to better the score of the phantom golfer, Colonel Bogey.

For how many years were the national championships in golf discontinued during the partition of this country in the World War?

No national events were held in 1917 and 1918. In 1916, Chick Evans won the amateur and open championships. On the resumption of the events in 1919, David Henson won the amateur and Walter Hagen the open title.

It's Easy, She Says, Once You Learn How

Miss Ethel Wood, 18-year-old Philadelphia dancer, doesn't think it's hard to do a split, once you get the knack of it. And that comes, she says from plenty of exercise, plenty of milk and plenty of sleep.

Greensboro Trims Winston 13 To 9

WINSTON-SALEM, June 19.—Greensboro gained a commanding lead in the early stages of this afternoon's game which Winston-Salem was unable to overcome, and the leaders won by the count of 13 to 9. With the score standing 13 to 2 at the end of the seventh the locals staged a rally which brought them seven runs, making the total nine. Each team received sixteen hits and each contributed two errors apiece. The fielding of Faber, O'Hara and Corley featured. The box score:

Yesteryears In Sports

TEN YEARS AGO, on June 20, 1913, Archer Duff of the Great Falls (Mont.) club of the United Association, was purchased by the Pirates for $3,000.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO, on June 20, 1898, Tommy Mulane was relieved of the management of the Detroit team. Rumor had it that George Stallings, who had just been deposed as pilot of the Phillies, would succeed him.

American League

NEW YORK 6; DETROIT 5.

NEW YORK, June 19.—Home runs by Hoffman and Pipp were the determining factors in giving the Yankees a six to five victory over Detroit in the third game of the series today. Hoffman hit his home run off Cole in the second inning and Pipp hit another in the seventh inning, scoring Ruth ahead of him.

Lu Lubbo, Detroit first baseman, was knocked unconscious by a batted ball during fielding practice, but he played in the game. New York permitting Francis to run for him after he singled in the first inning. Score by innings: R. H. E. Detroit . . . 000 102 002—5 12 0 New York . . . 031 000 200—6 11 1

Sole, Daus, Johnson and Bassler, Jones and Hoffman.

CHICAGO 12; PHILADELPHIA 3.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—Chicago drove "Slim" Harris off the mound today and handed Philadelphia a luring, 12 to 3 Collins first man to face Hemach, sent the ball over the fence for a home run scoring two runs ahead of him. Hooper, first to face O'Brien in the 9th also hit a home run over the right field wall.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Chicago . . . 000 061 005—12 11 1 Philadelphia . . . 001 100 100—3 12 2

Robertson, Thurston and Schalk, Harris, Hemach, O'Brien and Perkins.

ST. LOUIS 12; POSTON 6.

BOSTON, June 19.—St. Louis made it three straight over Boston by winning, 12 to 6 today. The winners used five pitchers while Boston used three. Serlechner continued his heavy hitting, making four hits, including a home run over the left field fence off Fullerton in the 7th with Williamson on base. Shocker finished up effectively for the visitors although he pitched a full game yesterday.

Score by innings: R. H. E. St. Louis . . . 100 050 402—12 19 1 Boston . . . 000 221 100—6 12 2

Fruett, Wright, Root, Kolp, Shocker and Severide, Quinn, Fullerton, O'Doul and Walters.

WASHINGTON 7; CLEVELAND 6.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—Washington twice came from behind to take the second game of the series from Cleveland today. 7-6 Smith was unbeatable until the seventh when he was hit by the Sox and the three men he faced, forcing in the "big run."

Connolly and Lutze of the visitors made circuit clouts, each scoring a runner ahead, and a freak homer was made by Pinch Hitter Brower in the second game of the series from the pavilion railing through an opening at the end of the fence.

Score by innings: R. H. E. Washington . . . 012 020 001—7 10 3 Cleveland . . . 000 000 502—6 10 3

Smith, Uhle, Edwards and S. O'Neill, Warmouth, Zachary, Brillheart, Russell and Ruel.

RICHARDS WITH HUNTER GOES TO THIRD ROUND

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, June 19.—Vincent Richards and Francis T. Hunter, respective number three and number nine in the American lawn tennis ranking list, began their invasion of British courts today by advancing to the third rounds in the men's singles of the London championships at the Queen's Club, in addition to forming a match together in the doubles.

Richards and Hunter were swinging their racquets on the courts within a few hours after landing at Southampton and had no trouble in winning their matches.

Richards eliminated L. Roben, 6-0, 6-1. In the first round and Hunter defeated M. S. McCabe, 6-0, 6-0. In the second Richards defeated G. Stoddard 6-3, 6-2, and Hunter defeated H. S. Hunt, 6-1, 6-1. Paired in doubles the Americans won from Wallis Myers and N. M. Heath, 4-6, 6-0, 11-9, 3-2 (retired.)

Miss Leslie Bancroft advanced to the third round in the women's singles by defeating Miss Lamb, 6-2, 6-4 after winning from Miss Tetchell, 6-3, 6-3. In the second round, Miss Elizabeth Ryan, formerly of California, defeated Mrs. Warbourg, 6-0, 6-0. In the third round

In the first round of the women's doubles, Miss Ryan and Mrs. Lambert Chambers defeated the Americans, Miss Isabelle Mumford and Miss Bancroft, 6-1, 6-0.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York at St. Louis. Philadelphia at Chicago. Brooklyn at Cincinnati. Boston at Pittsburgh.

Grandstand Gaff

Dropped another to Raleigh, owing to an infield that had another bad day and could not be charged with most of their errors.

The Tobaccoists are at home today with the Furniture Makers as guests. Probably home atmosphere will bring them back to last week's form.

McCullough, with four hits out of five trips, and Thompson, with two homers kept the crippled High Point club in good fighting distance of Greensboro and the lead, by defeating Durham 11 to 5. At the same time the Patriots with Cox showing his teammates the way with four hits, held the lead by defeating the Twins 13 to 9.

In the American League yesterday eight circuit clouts were recorded, averaging one for each club. But all of the eight did not contribute towards victory, three of the eight were hit by Speaker's Indians, who dropped a hard-fought game to Washington.

In mentioning Grier Friday's big time debut Sunday one matter was overlooked. The former Raleighite came very near establishing a major league record on his first day up, by walking 14 White Sox, two less than the record. In the same game, Blaise, a teammate, struck out five times, equalling the major league record. Sounds like an old-time fiddler's convention, where the worst fiddler also wins a prize.

Villa, the new flyweight champion, is desirous of action. After a hurried visit to his little brown bride on the islands, he will take on Frankie Genaro, who took the 113-pound coronet from him in March. The battle is planned for September.

Then comes the report that Lew Tendler will get another crack at Benny Leonard for the lightweight crown. These two, the bitterest ring rivals in the world, will meet on the night of July 23 in the Yankee Stadium. Their last bout was for 12 rounds without a decision. Once more the mammoth stadium will be turned into a mint.

In a few days another important announcement will be made to the ring fans, when Mike Collins gives out the prelims to the Dempsey-Gibbons scrap, which he is now arranging.

Only ten points in the percentage column now separate the leaders in the Piedmont pennant chase. Danville remains in possession of third place by 38 points, which is over 100 points below the two top-notchers.

At that Eddie Regan connected for two triples yesterday. Eddie must have become envious of Carr Smith and decided to get his eye on the ball.

The Cincinnati Reds squeezed out another win yesterday over Brooklyn 1 to 0. At this time it might be mentioned that the game was Luque's ninth victory out of ten starts and the 25th straight inning in which he has held the opposition scoreless. Still they say that the no-nonsense men in the older of the major circuits.

PERSONALS.—Dr. Clyde Bailey has returned from Baltimore where he accompanied H. O. Kenna to the University Hospital where he is taking treatment.

Miss Ruth Smeltzer, of Elizabethton, Tenn., is spending the summer with her aunts, Mrs. E. V. Smith, Halifax St., and Mrs. P. Sam Walton, North Main St.

KIRKWOOD WITH BARNES LEAD

(By The Associated Press)

GLEN ANGLES, Scotland, June 19.—Joe Kirkwood with a 71, and Jim Barnes with a 73 led the field today at the end of the first half of a qualifying round in the Glasgow Herald thousand guineas golf tournament.

Among others with good scores were A. G. Havers, who won the British open championship last week, George Duncan, S. F. Brews and H. C. Jolly.

AGE OF 78 NO HANDICAP IN GYMNASIUM CLASSES

"GRANDMA" SCHULZ TRIES, THIS DAILY TO KEEP YOUNG.

(Special to The Bee) ST. LOUIS, June 20.—She's 78 years young and attends gymnasium regularly.

That's the proud record of Mrs. Dorothy Schulz—more familiarly known as "Grandma" here.

Her friends say no bob-haired flapper is more athletic than she.

"How come?" interrogated the perplexed reporter.

"Plenty of exercise, lots of time spent in the open, and 24 hours a day devoted to loving fellow beings," she answered.

"How about dancing? Does that help you keep young?" "Dancing? Youth I was very fond of dancing," she said. "We often stayed up till the wee sma' hours, in those days. But dances were different then they are now."

"You can say I am 78 years young—not old. And that I expect to be here for a long time to come. Probably you will feel older than I when you interview me on my 100th birthday," was the parting "shot" of "Grandma," who was a bride when the Civil War broke and a mother when Lincoln was assassinated.

LEONARD IS TO FIGHT TENDLER

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, June 19.—Benny Leonard of New York, world's light weight champion, will defend his title in a fifteen round match with Lew Tendler, Philadelphia southpaw, at the Yankee Stadium on the night of July 23.

The boxers, together with their managers, late today signed contracts for the bout with the newly organized Cromwell Athletic Club, which has obtained ring privileges at the American League Park.

Financial terms, it was understood, was for the champion to receive 57½ per cent of the gross receipts and Tendler 12½ per cent. Club officials estimated that the fight would attract a gate of $400,000 and on the basis Leonard would receive about $150,000 for the defense of his crown and Tendler $50,000.

The match was made as a result of a protracted period of negotiation and after spirited bidding for it by several metropolitan promoters. Tex Rickard, Madison Square Garden promoter and Tom O'Rourke, Toledo Grounds matchmaker, both were dickering for the match besides the Cromwell Club, of which Jimmy Johnston is the matchmaker. The last possible obstacle in the way of the match, it was said, was removed last night when ringside critics accorded Tendler a decisive verdict over Pat Moran, of New Orleans, at a no-decision affair at Philadelphia.

Tendler and Leonard have been bitter ring rivals for a long time. They fought aashing 12-round no-decision bout at Boyles' Thirty Acres last July in which the champion was credited with a narrow margin of victory, although the Philadelphia had him on the verge of a knockout in the eighth round.

Leonard returned to the ring recently after several months of idleness and knocked out Pinkie Mitchell of Milwaukee, in Chicago.

Danville Loses Second Slugfest to Raleigh 12 to 9

Second Contest Is Taken By Raleigh

Murphy's Men Are Defeated by Raleigh in Game of Much Hitting.

RALEIGH, June 19.—Raleigh again turned the tables on Danville and won the second consecutive game from the Virginians 12 to 9. The contest was a slugfest from beginning to end, the locals scoring consecutively for five innings, while the Tobacconists runs came scattering. Danville seems to have attained a complete reversal of its good playing of last week, when they won six straight and played bang-up ball, playing four games without a semblance of an error. The infield had another bad day. Things seem to break again in the inner defense in a way that in most cases errors could not be charged.

The Virginians outthrew the Capitals but they had fourteen men stranded, showing that although they could "see" them on, they were helpless when it came to pushing them across the scoring station. On the other hand, the locals registered thirteen safeties and brought in a dozen men. Murphy's first score, however, was a mound but he was an easy mark for the locals and Gray relieved him after two were out in the second. Gray was also ineffective until after the fifth when he held the locals scoreless the rest of the way.

Murphy, Regan and Cochlin did Danville's heavy hitting, Regan securing two triples and a single in five trips to the plate, while Waldrop and C. Smith did the locals' heavy swatting.

FINE SHOWING OF MAC SMITH

Contrary to general opinion, MacDonald Smith, who did so well in the British Open, is not a recent addition to the golfing luminaries. As a matter of fact, he is a veteran star, who has simply been out of the limelight for several years.

Back in 1910 Smith finished in a triple tie for the national open with Aleck Smith and J. J. McDermott. In the playoff Aleck won the title.

In 1912 Smith won the western open from a class field with a score of 299. Two years later he finished in front for the Metropolitan championship. At that time the famous Harry Vardon referred to him as the "solving genius" of the nation.

All these years later overtook Smith and caused him to drop out of tournament play entirely, although he continued as a golf pro on the coast. Despite the fact that he seldom took part in even minor competition he never let up on his game.

This year, having entirely recovered his health, he plans to play in a number of the leading championship events. He has made a sensational comeback as to his health and his golf, as his showing in the British open proved.

While MacDonald represented the United States in the British open, he is an American only by adoption. He was born in Carnoustie, Scotland. He came to this country with his father, who accepted a position as greens keeper with the Claremont Country Club at Berkeley, Cal.

His play abroad has been one of the sensations of the American invasion, as few of the experts gave him much consideration in discussing the chances of the American golfers, yet none played a sounder game.

Durham Loses To Pointers 11 To 5

HIGH POINT, June 19.—In a game featured by long and heavy hitting, High Point defeated Durham to the tune of 11 to 5. Neither Pitchers Rodgers for the Bulls and Mott for the Pointers were effective, but as both sides seem about evenly matched in the playing, each was allowed to remain in the box. McCullough got four hits out of five times at bat. Thompson slammed out two home runs in the third with one out and the second in the fifth with none on. Thresher's homer came in the first with two on and Schmidt's in the third with none on. The box score follows:

Crucial Series Will Start Today

Manager Murphy and his squad of slugfests, Tobacconists, will begin a two-game series with Manager Herndon's High Point aggregation today at Stonehill Jackson park, the game beginning at 4:15 sharp. It is probably Pitcher Gibson's turn to work, and the team will make an effort to take the opening game especially.

Until with the past week, the High Point club has been leading the Piedmont procession, but they were displaced a few days ago by the visiting Greensboro bunch, and will doubtless make a hard fight to maintain their pursuit of the new leaders. Pitcher Eldridge, the High Point ace of last season, has not made a fine showing thus far as he did in the 1922 race, but he may round in to his best form in time to give the other clubs much worry before the autumn leaves appear.

Danville dropped both games to Raleigh, apparently because of ineffective pitching, aided by errors. The team has shown its ability to go cleaner and better fielding than yesterday's score shows. Reports from Raleigh of disunion among the players is unverified but the truth will be learned today.

The outstanding needs of the team are a fast and hard-hitting second baseman and a good outfielder who can hit the ball in the pinches. The consensus of judgment among many who have been heard to express themselves is that these are the two weak points of the team. Another first class, dependable pitcher would also strengthen the club. A second baseman named Murphy is said to be on the way with the latter from Richmond. Just what causes the weak opening by the Danville team in which the opposing team so often gets a first, second or third inning lead and forces the Tobacconists to play an uphill game thereafter is hard to explain, but the cause will doubtless be sought and the remedy applied. Both the Raleigh games showed poor work in the field and an inability to convert hits into runs. In a word, it was a complete reversal of the form shown by the team in the six games of last week. Ability to win away from home is essential to any really strong, formidable team.

Yale's Rowing Termed Outstanding Feature Of Year's College Athletics

By WALTER CAMP.
(Copyright, 1923, By The Bee)
NEW YORK, June 20.—There has been nothing in college athletics this year which has bulked larger than the startling developments made in Yale rowing under coach Leader, who formerly coached the crewed of the University of Washington.

If Yale comes through at New London on June 22 with a clean-cut victory over Harvard, and shows that her crew can row the four-mile distance, at the same time displaying the ability and stamina shown in the shorter races, it will mean nothing less than a complete upset of opinions that have almost come to be regarded in the minds of some rowing men basic facts.

Harvard, for example, announced in mid-season that hereafter, separate crews would be trained for the short and long distances. Assertions galore have been made for the last few years that a crew training for a four-mile race could not possibly be expected to win over the shorter distances and consequently must accept defeat in the short races if it looked forward to victory in the longer grind of the four-mile contests.

Should conditions be favorable at New London, and should Leader's crew row the four miles against Harvard in what could be considered fast time, then the coach's triumph would be most complete for the same Leader crew has already defeated Pennsylvania, Columbia, Princeton and Cornell in all the shorter distances.

The striking part of all this to the rowing enthusiast, however, is that Leader has brought to Yale a stroke with most interesting features and has taught it to old men and new men, to men with rowing experience and to men without. He has

Villa Will Fight Genaro Once More

NEW YORK, June 19.—Plans already are under way, according to Tom O'Rourke, Polo Grounds matchmaker, for another world's flyweight title bout, bringing together Pancho Villa, the new champion, who toppled Jimmy Wilde from the throne last night, and Frankie Genaro, of New York, who won the American 112-pound crown from the Filipino last March. Villa has signed a contract for the match, which O'Rourke plans to stage about September 1.

Though still weak and bruised from the terrific punishment he absorbed in losing his title to Villa, Wilde was declared today by physicians to be in no danger from his injuries. Propped up in bed in his Jersey City quarters the little Welshman, who was hailed by critics as one of the greatest battlers of all time, was able to receive a few of his close friends. Wilde's left eye was closed, his right eye nearly so and besides a gash on his cheek, a cut four inches long on his chin testified to the force with which he plunged to the canvas from Villa's knockout blow in the seventh. Revised figures today on the championship bout, announced by promoters, placed the paid attendance at 23,000 and receipts at $94,590, considerably below the total of 40,000 for the crowd and $150,000 as estimated last night. On the basis of the new figures, Wilde's share, 37.1-2 per cent, was about $35,000 and Villa's 12.1-2 per cent, amounted to $12,000.

May Add Two More Clubs To Virginia League

LYNCHBURG, June 20.—An article given out yesterday by the Associated Press to the effect that the managers of the present Virginia League had suggested the enlargement of the number of teams in the league, from six to eight, and including Lynchburg and Roanoke in the proposed new circuit has caused considerable comment here.

Their plan to make Richmond, Norfolk, Petersburg and Portsmouth the eastern group of clubs and Wilson, Rocky Mount, Roanoke and Lynchburg the western group of teams, so that the clubs could swing from the east to the west in a trip and vice versa, thus cutting down the expenses of long jumps sounds interesting.

GIBBONS HOLD HEAVY WORKOUT

(By The Associated Press)
SHELBY, Mont., June 19.—While Shelby was out for another chilly downpour that lasted all day, Tom Gibbons, this afternoon indulged in the most strenuous workout he has had since he began training for his title bout here with Jack Dempsey, July 4.

In the "Green Light" a cavernous structure of rough hewn pine boards, a dance hall reminiscent of those early days of the west, the challenger faced three sparring partners in a strenuous hour's work, equivalent to a fast fifteen round bout. Synchopped strains from an orchestra ushered in the afternoon session for nearly 800 spectators who watched the challenger work.

Tillie (kid) Herman, engaged the challenger in a furious three rounds that completed the work-out; after Gibbons had skipped ropes gone through three rounds of shadow boxing and clashed with two other sparring partners.

SNOUT OF PIG PUT TO WORK

CHICAGO, June 19.—The snout of the pig has been put to work by the farm labor shortage, and the saying that everything of the pig is used but his squeal no longer holds entirely good, says the National Institute of Progressive Farming.

The pig now drinks at automatic waterers and manipulates self-feeders with his snout, which he formerly used to root up pastures and emit loud squeals. He need no longer root the ground or squeal when hungry, the incentive having been removed. A certain amount of time and labor also was eliminated by the more simplified way of feeding and watering.

The consumer, the Institute says, benefits materially with better pork products through the more general use of sanitary concrete wallows or baths and automatic hog-ollers which tend to decrease hog disease formerly contracted in the traditional mud-wallows. In fact the hogs readily take to the "concrete baths" in preference to the old mud puddles.

Another item which makes for a healthier and more profitable pig, says the Institute, is the more general advantage taken of the process whereby the hogs are turned into the corn fields and allowed to harvest while feeding themselves. Thousands of acres of grain are harvested in this way instead of carrying feed to penned up pigs. This also serves to reduce the farm labor problem.

Where this process is used, beans are planted with the corn to permit the pig to harvest a balanced ration to give a finer ham sandwich to the consumer.

G. O. P. DISTRICT BARELY STICKS

(By The Associated Press)

DETROIT, MICH., June 19.—A. E. ## Pittsburg Holocaust's River Of Fire

A bolt of lightning and a tank of oil. Well, here's how they mixed in a Pittsburg refinery. Flames spread quickly to other giant containers. Many were injured. Property loss was estimated at $200,000. It looks like the river's on fire. But it's thousands of gallons of burning oil. Only a change in wind saved the big Sharnburg bridge, across the Allegheny River.

She either fell or jumped out. She had been restless for the last few days and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. George Drathschmidt, had been closely watching her.

WILL PROCEED WITH WINSTON'S UNION STATION

(By The Associated Press) RALEIGH, N. C., June 19.—The State Corporation commission late this evening signed an order amending the original order for a union station at Winston-Salem, which provides for a drop station in the business district where all passenger trains will be required to stop. The amended order eliminates the provision for a drop station and according to officials of the commission the railroads have expressed a willingness to proceed immediately with the building of the union station.

Cost of Dope Cause Victims To Steal, Kill

Ring Within Ring Is Rule With the Poor Victim Forced to Pay Fabulous Prices for His "Bindle".

By FRED V. WILLIAMS (Special to The Bee.)

The price of dope? Before it takes its price in lives dope strips the purse.

That's why prison officials the nation over report that drug victims are their best patrons. To get the "stuff" they will rob and kill.

I remember a certain corner where peddlers and addicts met. A little girl, innocent of the part she played, was used as a signal. The fact that this child passed a certain point on the road was clear, that the peddlers were coming and no police were in sight.

Within an instant a motley crew began to appear: some in rags and tatters; some well dressed; some twitching, some affecting calm—all feverishly awaiting the arrival of the peddler. It was all done in an instant.

Swiftly money had changed for tiny bindles and the salesman had disappeared. So skilled they were at this method of exchange that only the careful watcher could note the passing of money.

And the price: an average of $500 an ounce for cocaine or morphine that was manufactured for about $2.50. The unfortunate users buy from $3 to $6 worth at a time, except in the case of the wealthy addicts who can keep supplies on hand.

To get the money for these little bindles half the crimes in America are committed; more than half in many places.

It is estimated that it costs an addict at least $6 a day to stay "on the junk." Only a very small percentage of users can earn this much a day. They are driven to robbery, burglary, every sort of crime.

Peddlers like "Red Raven" are either "middlemen" or "retailers." There are any number of degrees of dope traders and each makes fat profit. From the smuggler it passes into the hands of those who can buy in goodly quantities; then to the peddler who takes it in ounce parcels, reducing it to "bindles" for the victims.

There, briefly, is the whole picture. It's a rather hopeless one.

Blames Bootleggers This evil has increased with the consumption of bootleg liquor in the large cities under prohibition. The liquor tears the nerves to tatters, destroys sleep and the drinker turns to dope to find rest.

There are few permanent cures. This is due largely to the fact that addicts discharged after treatment in hospitals again are thrown into contact with their old cronies.

Segregation of known addicts from normal prisoners in the jail possible confinement of them on an island or in a reservation instead of prison for treatment and then shipment to cities and places where they have no old acquaintances of their dope days—these are ways to shackle the monster of dope that is rising over the nation.

75 YEARS IN ENGLISH MINES LONDON, June 19.—Claiming to be the oldest working miner in Great Britain, Peter Stark, has completed 75 years of work at Holytown, Lanarkshire, where he has been employed since he was nine years old. Stark, hale and hearty at 84, still works in the mines.

Aero Congress Is Cause Of Big Suit

(By Chicago Tribune Service) NEW YORK, June 18.—The first international aero congress in Omaha, Neb., November 3, 1921, provided the material for a sensational melodrama now being acted before Supreme Court Justice Mahoney and a jury.

With the Commercial Union Assurance Company, Ltd., as plaintiff in a suit to recover $15,870 paid on a policy covering the hangars and flying equipment of John M. Larsen, wealthy and internationally famous inventor and pioneer manufacturer of the all metal airplane in America, a score of other companies, which paid $175,000 after a fire which destroyed Larsen's hangars at Central Park, L. I., February 8, 1922, are awaiting the outcome of the test case.

The insurance companies settled claims principally on the strength of an affidavit made by Ernest Buell, a young German mechanic and world war veteran, brought to America in 1920 by Larsen, who said he was working on a plane when the flame from an overturned blow-pipe accidentally ignited the gasoline drenched floor.

In a statement last March before Referee Arthur Omer, Buell said Larsen invited him to his home on Riverside Drive, the day before the fire and offered him $1,500 to set fire to the hangars. Buell said he followed Larsen's instructions, set the airplanes, an automobile and a yacht burned with the six hangars.

Charging in his opening address to the jury, "I will now unfold to you the most amazing conspiracy that you have ever heard," Arthur G. Hays, of counsel for Larsen, said the suit was the outcome of the feeling caused when Larsen protested the award of the commercial airplane trophy to C. B. Wrichisman's entry.

Kills Young Wife In Angry Frenzy

FREDERICK, Md., June 20.—A double tragedy, resulting in the death of two persons and injury of four others, occurred near the village of Legore, 12 miles north of this city late Sunday night, when Roy Smith, 20 years old, shot and instantly killed his wife, Mrs. Helen Wilhide Smith, aged 19, and wounded his father-in-law, the latter's two daughters and a girl friend of the family. He then fled a short distance into a wheat field and fired the second charge from a breech-loading shotgun into his own heart. The injured are:

Harry Wilhide, Smith's father-in-law; shot in shoulders.

Mildred Wilhide, 17, sister of the dead woman; shot about the hands and arms.

Beatrice Wilhide, 15, sister of the dead woman, shot about the arms.

Francis Saxon, 11, daughter of the Rev. S. A. Saxon; scalp wound.

But two shots were fired, the first charge entering the back of the head of Mrs. Smith, killing her instantly.

The second charge, 15 minutes later, ended the life of the murderer. The injured, seated in the wagon in which Mrs. Smith was riding, were struck by stray shot.

The shooting occurred on the road between the Church of God, which the Wilhide party had been attending and the Wilhide home.

This man was so . . . . . his . . . . . side . . . . . Was all men could . . . . . until he died. There are three words missing in the above epitaph each word is composed of the same seven letters. Can you fill them in?

Yesterday's answer: Starting with the letter E (numbered 1), count seven letters around the circle (to the right), which brings you to L (numbered 2). Continue to count seven each time, and you will check off the letters in the order in which they are numbered. In this order from 1 to 12 they spell ELEVEN O'CLOCK, the very hour to which the hands are pointing!

NEW FISSIONS OPEN IN VOLCANO'S SIDE

(By The Associated Press)

ROME, June 19.—Gabriele Caronza, Italian minister of Public Works, has left for the devastated region around Mt. Etna, to assist in caring for the thousands who have been made homeless by the mighty mountain's eruption. Hope was expressed today that Linguaglossa which at one time yesterday seemed to be doomed by the lava was out of danger. Three little towns have been wiped out. Eyewitnesses of the eruption, say that not only did the main crater break into activity but five vast fissures appeared in the northeast side of the volcano contributing to the flow of lava on the forests and fruit groves that clothed the slopes of the mountain. Much timber has been destroyed.
